

Notice of Breach of Operational Rules

Date: 9 April 2025
To: Fang Wang
From: Ivy Zhou
Boutique Body Corporates Limited
Subject: Breach of Operational Rules
Body Corporate 468772 – Queens Residences – Unit 1005

The Body Corporate is responsible for the maintenance and care of the common areas. It is also required to ensure rules and procedures laid down by the Body Corporate are followed. These rules have been established in the interests of all owners and occupants and the Body Corporate is obliged to enforce them.

There have been concerns raised regarding the incident between the tenant of your unit and the Building Manager earlier today. CCTV footage shows an interaction between your tenant and the female Building managing ending in the parcels from the mailroom being stolen. Please note, that anti-social and aggressive behaviour such as this will not be tolerated and has incurred the below penalty.

13 Noise, Behaviour and Conduct

An Owner of a Unit shall not make or permit any noise or carry out or permit any conduct or behaviour in any Unit or on the Common Property which is likely to interfere with the use and enjoyment of the Unit Title Development by other Owners.

The male tenant also took all the remaining parcels in the mail room that do not belong to him. Any cost associated in the recovery of those parcels, and cost claimed from owners of the parcels will be passed on to your unit in due course.

The Body Corporate is requesting you to consider removing this tenant from your unit.

25.6 The Body Corporate is authorised to exclude or evict from the Unit Title Development any person who in the opinion of the Body Corporate is under the influence of intoxicating liquor or drugs or who in any manner wilfully does any act in violation of these Rules or who is in the opinion of the Body Corporate a nuisance to other Owners or people within the Unit Title Development or who commits or is suspected of committing an offence whether charged or convicted or otherwise.

This breach notice has incurred a fee for the Secretary's time and attendance which is $300.00 plus GST.. If this breach of the rules continues, the Body Corporate likely will apply to the Tenancy Tribunal for an enforcement order. The cost of such an application is a $550.00 filing fee and the Secretary's charges at $165.00 plus GST per hour– these costs will be recoverable as part of the claim.

Kind Regards
